SIR,

I have the honor to intimate that the marginally noted Sowars of the Imperial Service Regiment being found unfit for further effective Military Service were sent before the Civil Surgeon, Bangalore, for Medical Examination who declared them fit for further Service.

2 In accordance with the Proceedings of Government No. 2098 I-2 / G. 5214 dated 15th June 1893, I ordered them to appear before a Committee of Officers of one Risaldar and two Jemadars of the Regiment who are of opinion that the Sowars above alluded to are unfit for further Military Service vide Canarese Proceedings of the Board dated 30th January 1900, herewith enclosed for information and obliging return.

3 As the Regimentdar of the Imperial Service Regiment agrees with the opinion of the Committee, I propose the retirement from the Service of the three Sowars referred to above on gratuities to which their Services entitle them to
